

70 YEARS OLD, ASKS TO CENSOR BATHING GIRLS

Commodore Tanguy Has Keen
Sight and He Doesn't Want Any Pay.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 7.—Mayor Robert Crissey of Somers Point has said women forbidden the beach at Atlantic City unless they wear stockings can bathe in his ocean. Anyway there is no policeman at Somers Point to censor costumes. But there may be one.

Commodore William Tanguy has applied for the job. He'll take it without pay. He's rich, owns the "Chateau," a fine estate at the resort, and is seventy years old.

"But," he asserts, "my sight is all right."

BURLESON'S RULING ON N. Y. CALL UPHeld

Mandamus Against Post Office Department Is Refused on Appeal.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia yesterday reversed a decision of the Supreme Court of the District granting the publishers of the New York Call a mandamus to require the Postmaster General to restore to that newspaper the second class mailing privilege. The case was remanded with directions to dismiss the petition at the cost of the publishers.

The decision puts publications of an aggressively radical character in the same class with "indecent and obscene literature." The mail privileges of the Call were revoked by Burleson in November, 1917. Last week Postmaster General Hays announced his intention of restoring them, and also to the Milwaukee Leader, Socialist, and the Liberator, Anarchist.

SAY HE ROBBED SOLDIERS.

Veteran Said to Have Admitted
Theft of $3,100.

Charles Matthews, No. 46 Lexington Avenue, was arrested last night on a Pittsburgh warrant, charging grand larceny. According to the complaint, Matthews, a former soldier, pooled his money with twenty-six other soldiers on the way from Chicago to Pittsburgh, and placed it in a safe on the train for safe keeping. When they arrived in Pittsburgh April 6, it is charged, both Matthews and the money were missing. Detective Lounis says Matthews admitted he got $3,100 of a total of $7,600 alleged to have disappeared. Matthews, the police say, has been spending money freely along Broadway, but is broke now. He is being held for extradition.
